Synopsis: Emma Woodhouse prides herself on being a matchmaker with an impeccable track record, much to the chagrin of her dear friend Mr. Knightley. Her latest scheme revolves around the sweet Harriet Smith, whom Emma advises to reject a perfectly good marriage proposal in favor of another eligible bachelor. However, her best-laid plans are turned upside down by unpredictable displays of affection, unexpected rivals and Emma's sudden realization that true love may have been under her nose all along..

Originally commissioned and produced by Guthrie Theater, Joseph Haj, Director.

EMMA is presented through special arrangement with TRW PLAYS 1180 Avenue of the Americas, Suite 640, New York, NY 10036. www.trwplays.com

Synopsis: Told through the experience and writings of Alice, one of eight teenagers struggling to survive the apocalypse while hiding in their school's library. Alice documents the bonds formed and tested within the group, their efforts to survive, and her budding romance with Whitman. She discusses the pain of the experience as well – specifically, her attack and the deaths and losses of her peers.

This is an original work, written by Longleaf School of the Arts Theatre Program alumna, Nina Ridley Clayton.

This play includes themes of sadness, tragedy, mild violence/abuse and death, and the end of the world as we know it.

ADJUDICATORS

BONNIE FRAKER

Bonnie Fraker served as chair of the theatre department at Northwest School of the Arts, where she taught acting, musical theatre, and directing for ten years. The shows she directed at NWSA earned many NCTC awards, including seven Distinguished Plays and twenty-one Blumey Awards. Her former students can now be seen on Broadway, on TV, and in movies. Prior to living and teaching in Charlotte, she was a theatrical producer in NYC. There she was the associate producer of three Broadway shows, including The Best Little Whorehouse in Texas, which won two Tony Awards and ran for seven years. She is a thirty year member of the Directors Guild. Five years ago, NCTC honored her with the Theatre Educator of the Year Award. She has a BA in Theatre from the University of South Carolina, and an MA in Theatre from Trinity University. Currently, she is an acting coach in New York City.

MARTHA O'NEILL

Martha O'Neill is a retired theatre teacher. She taught at Piedmont Open Middle School and Northwest School of the Arts in Charlotte, NC. In 2004, she moved to Brunswick County and taught at North Brunswick High School. She finished her teaching career at Thomas Academy, located on the campus of The Boys and Girls Home of NC. Martha was CMS Teacher of the Year twice. She was the winner of the Time Warner Star Teacher award twice, and the North Brunswick Chamber of Commerce Excellence in Education Award three times. Martha is married to Dan and they have two rescue pups, Minnow and Milo.
